COMMITTEE MEETING

Held at the home of John and Jenny Bardill 20 Browne St Subiaco.

1. Present: John W. Jenny C. Deb H. Jenny B. John B, Jennifer E, Palenque, Cyndie.
2. Apologies: Bev, Carolyn.
3. Confirmation of previous minutes from 7/7/12: confirmed by John W. seconded by Jennifer.
4. Matters Arising from the Minutes:

The Turkish night was a success with newcomers as well.

Sausage Sizzle as a money making event: Information has been forwarded by Peter Fallon. Bev has offered to organize and following discussion it was decided to see how many people are willing to put in some time, a tentative date end of March or beginning of April on a Sunday [avoiding Easter Sunday March 31st 2013].

Red faces was enjoyed by all. Thanks to Leone for organizing it and to Pat Charlton who provided her home.

Camps: Jenny B and John B still looking in to it.

Vista print: Palenque investigated costs, found too expensive. Damon offered to check with office works cost of printing our cards and flyers.

5. Correspondence: emails from Peter F. as mentioned.
6. Financial report: John reported a reasonable cash flow, some income from sales of T shirts. The numbers on Monday are down, Saturday stable.

Discussion followed and ideas presented: John suggested reducing costs in the summer months, and to contact all members for feedback re costs. Cyndie suggested more frequent party nights to encourage newcomers but this not agreed on entirely as members like to dance their more challenging dances rather than the easier ones on party nights. A decision was made to survey the members for what they would like and the committee is asked to email Palenque by the end of the week for suggestions of questions to ask.
